

Tom Sanderson-Bio

Shady Cove has been my home for 17 years. Born and raised in Southern California. Two children and two grandchildren. Married for 37 years to wife Geri. Was a professional musician for 7 years, played the drums, had my own band, worked in clubs in L.A. and Orange County. Worked in Sales for over 41 years, retired in 2016. Held many management positions, experience in Sales, Marketing, Advertising, working with Budgets and Training. Upon arrival in Shady Cove, Geri and I became active in the community. In the Boosters for over 10 years, cleaned Highway 62, cleaned the banks of the Rogue River, helped hang City Flags, member of the Moose, helped with City Wide Cleanup, volunteered for the Spam festivals, an early participant in the Fire Department Volunteer Group. Been a member of the Chamber of Commerce since January 2014. Was appointed to City Council in October 2013, voted Mayor and sworn in January 2017. My goal as Councilor and Mayor is to represent the citizens, work with businesses and increase tourism.
